WEBCAM RULES

- Everyone can see you. Be appropriate. Turn camera off if you are leaving the screen or moving the camera.
- Please keep yourself muted until breakout groups. In Q and A you can wave at camera.
- If the host video logs out for some reason, or you drop out – just attempt to log back in via the link in your Zoom session email.
- Breakout Groups are automatically allocated. You are encouraged to contribute, but not necessary.

DISCLAIMER

- Limit of Care. Anything shared with us that we deem as a threat to your, or another's safety may be reported to authorities.
- We have the right to block and ban students for inappropriate behaviour.
- The advice given is not to be taken in any other sense than spiritual direction – therefore if you have emotional or mental health challenges, it's best you take appropriate local actions e.g. see your doctor.
- Our views, opinions and understanding from our viewpoint, you don't need to agree 100%
- Unless you have a previous relationship, all Inter-student correspondence must be sent through us by email or posted to the Facebook group for approval. This includes prophetic words.

BREAK-OUT DISCUSSION GROUPS

- In this space we want to create mutual respect and opportunity for growth for all participants.
- Please use a timer/watch to allow each person in the breakout group to have equal time to share.
- Keep your sharing brief and direct wherever possible.
- Please refrain from disclosing names of previous Pastors, family or friends.
- This is a group dynamic and we would like to honour the space however need to acknowledge that whilst confidentiality is desirable this space goes beyond our control therefore we ask that all participants use common sense and respect in these groups.
